

Voices: Examining the Influences that Shape Youth Culture

Deliver a “more compelling story” to your kids

“Whoever tells the stories defines the culture” – Dr. David Walsh

Suggestions for Parents

- ✓ Model media discernment in your home— watch what you watch (Phil. 4:8 & 9) (James 1:22-25)
- ✓ Set boundaries that you will enforce—be consistent (Prov. 22:6)
- ✓ Set your primary goal as a parent to raise a Follower of Jesus Christ (Eph. 6:4)
- ✓ Learn what the Bible has to say about wise living and discernment (Col. 3:1-3)
- ✓ Begin an on-going dialogue with your kids about media and the messages of the culture
- ✓ Be your kids “Go-To” guy or gal with their questions and confusions
- ✓ Develop a plan for media discernment for you and your kids (mediatalk101)
- ✓ Focus on their heart more than their behavior
- ✓ Be nosy when it comes to your kid’s friends and activities
- ✓ Ask your kids questions about culture — know what they know
- ✓ Learn the technology that your kids are using and talk with them about it
- ✓ Take advantage of and look for teachable moments (Deut. 6:4-9) (Matt. 14:30&31)
  - When you see something inappropriate—discuss why you think it is inappropriate. Talk about modesty, respect, self image, God’s design.
- ✓ Be willing to suffer as a parent. Your kids need a parent not a best friend. (1 Peter 2:20)
- ✓ Help your kids develop their own inner moral compass. Equipping vs. Protecting
- ✓ Have high expectations for your kids. They can be victorious!
- ✓ PRAY ! (I Thes. 5:16-18)(Phil. 4:6)
